

Week of October 16, 2017

Imagine that all the numbers from 1 to 100 inclusive are written on the blackboard. At every stage, you erase two numbers from the board and replace them with the sum of the two chosen numbers plus the product of the two numbers. Repeat this operation until only a single number remains. What are the possible values for that remaining number?

From Zucker and Davis