

Campus Technology

John Dixon, CIO

FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY

OFFICE Campus Applications and Data Services (CADS) Dir. Robin M Moore

IE DEPARTMENTAL ASSESSMENT PLAN

ASSESSMENT PLAN PERIOD: July 1, 2015 - June 30, 2016

DEPARTMENTAL MISSION STATEMENT: Analyze and develop application solutions, both conventional and emerging Technologies, for the management and support of the University administrative and academic functions with a stated disaster recovery process for the University's operational data support systems.

Goals	Desired Outcomes	Assessment Methods and Procedures	Results	Planned Improvements Based on Assessment Results
Provide systems analyses and design to create a system or systems for the review of courses to authenticate Financial Aid disbursement based on a major-specific Degree audit.	Provide a system for the Financial Aid Office to assist in disbursement tracking.	Work with the Financial Aid Office to track the veracity of data produced by the system germane to disbursements based on a major-specific Degree audit.	Programmed, tested and put in place in February 2016. Financial Aid office tracked and verified student cases in 2015-2016	No planned improvements for this Goal.
Provide systems analyses and designs to create programs to accommodate the implementation of the Affordable Care Act Reporting to employees and IRS for the management and support of the University's administrative and academic functions	Provide a program to the Human Resources Office that will allow the office to develop reports and summaries of full time and part-time employees related to their status germane to the Affordable Care Act	Work with the Human Resources Office to verify the data produced for full and part-time employees relative to the Affordable Care Act and provide status summaries to both internal and external stakeholders.	Programmed, and Currently working with the Human Resources Office and the IRS to properly calibrate the system	Will continue testing with Human Resources Office and IRS, Finishing project before IRS's deadline.
Provide systems analyses and designs to create programs defaulting to allow students to take only one online course per semester.	Provide a program that Produces data for of campus departments of student attempts to take online courses to help monitor and control the number of online courses attempted while allowing the Registrar's Office and other identified staff persons to override the restrictions on a	Track the registration status and participation levels of 100% students in online courses.	Programmed, tested, and put in place in March 2016. Registrar's Office is tracked and verified student cases in 2015-2016	No planned improvements for this Goal.