HANDBOOK REVISIONS

Proposed deletions are shown as ~~strike-throughs~~; proposed additions are shown in boldface italics. Page numbers apply to the FMU Faculty Handbook as revised in 2003-2004. In January 2004, Provost Chapman and Faculty Chair Wages asked Ken Autrey and Ben Kyer to serve as an ad hoc committee to work on revisions in the handbook that would clear up inconsistent and unclear sections. The original revisions were themselves revised through a series of meetings with various faculty and administrators in fall 2004.

Page 25

1. Temporary Appointments

Temporary appointments are for specifically limited terms, clearly stated at the time of appointment. The rank of faculty members holding temporary appointments is qualified by the terms “temporary” or “visiting,” as appropriate, and the rank of lecturer may be used.

If a faculty member who has held full-time temporary appointment is moved into a tenure-track position, ~~a maximum of three years' worth of that faculty member's years of temporary service should count as part of the probationary period, unless the faculty member's academic duties change appreciably with the move from temporary to tenure-track service.~~ up to five years of full-time teaching experience at Francis Marion University may be used in partial fulfillment of the time requirement for acquiring tenure. It is the responsibility of the faculty member's school or department to recommend how many years' worth of service should be credited toward his or her probationary appointment. At the time of appointment to a tenure-track position, contracts will specify both the credit for previous service toward tenure and the tenure decision date. The time to the tenure decision date shall begin with the first tenure-eligible contract at Francis Marion University.

ADD following the paragraph labeled “B. Part-time Appointments”:

Definitions of “Termination,” “Nonrenewal,” “Nonreappointment,” and “Dismissal”

In this handbook, “termination” refers to dismissal of a faculty member for cause (which may include moral turpitude), financial exigency, discontinuance of a program or department, or any medical condition making it impossible to perform assigned duties. “Moral turpitude” is defined as behavior that would evoke condemnation by the academic community generally. “Nonrenewal” and “nonreappointment” apply to probationary or temporary appointments and refer to the University’s decision not to renew a contract. “Dismissal,” a more general term, refers to termination or nonrenewal/nonreappointment.

~~Terminal Notice or Salary~~ Termination Notice

If an appointment is terminated, the faculty member will receive ~~salary or~~ notice and commensurate salary in accordance with the following schedule: at least three months if the final decision is reached by March 1 (or three months prior to the expiration) of the first year of probationary service; at least six months if the decision is reached by December 15 of the second year (or after nine months but prior to eighteen months) of probationary service; at least one year if the decision is reached after eighteen months of probationary service or if the faculty member has tenure.

This provision ~~for terminal salary or notice~~ need not apply in the event that there has been a finding that the conduct which justified dismissal involved moral turpitude or other adequate cause. ~~For the purpose of these regulations "moral turpitude" is defined as behavior that would evoke condemnation by the academic community generally.~~ On the recommendation of the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee or of the President of the University, the Board of Trustees and other state approving bodies (as required by law) may take into account the length and quality of service of the faculty member in determining what (if any) payments will be made beyond the effective date of dismissal.

~~Voluntary Termination~~ Resignation by a Faculty Member

If a member of the faculty desires to ~~terminate~~ resign from an existing appointment or to decline a renewal, in the absence of notice of termination or non-renewal, he or she shall give notice not less than three months, if his or her rank is instructor or assistant professor, and not less than four months, if his or her rank is higher, before the end of his or her duties during an academic year, exclusive of a summer session.

Procedures for Hearing Grievances Related to Academic Freedom and Tenure, as well as Cases Involving Dismissal for Cause

DELETE the heading, “Jurisdiction of the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee,” and move the following paragraph(s) up, making it paragraphs #2, 3, and 4 under “A. Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee”:

The Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee generally hears complaints from ~~these~~ seven categories of faculty: (1) ~~tenured~~ faculty who have received notification from the institution that proceedings have been initiated to dismiss them for cause, (2) tenured faculty who have received notification from the institution that proceedings have been initiated to dismiss them on grounds of financial exigency, (3) faculty who ~~are on probationary appointments who~~ believe their ~~dismissal~~ nonreappointment is a violation of their academic freedom, (4) faculty who believe they have been terminated unfairly because of discontinuance of a program or department not mandated by financial exigency, (5) faculty who believe they have been terminated unfairly for medical reasons, (6) faculty who believe they have been victims of discrimination in nonreappointment, and (7) faculty who have not been terminated but who believe that their academic freedom has been abridged.

The complaints of non-tenured faculty whose terms have not expired and ~~where~~ whose academic freedom is not at issue are more properly heard by the Faculty Grievance Committee, since neither issues of academic freedom nor of tenure are involved.

In cases that do not fall clearly into one of the categories above, the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee shall convene to determine if it has jurisdiction over the complaint.

Page 28

Committee Preliminary Procedures

When questions about the fitness of a faculty member, the termination of a faculty member, or the abridgment of a faculty member's academic freedom arise, ~~the following procedures will be followed:~~

ADD here the paragraph currently under “Preliminary Procedures” on page 29.

ADD here “Formal Hearing Procedures” from page 29, with the following modifications:

2. Formal proceedings before the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee may be instituted by either the President of the University or the faculty member involved through consultation with the Chair of the Faculty.
3. Service of notice of hearing with specific charges in writing will be made by the Provost at least twenty days prior to the hearing. The faculty member may waive a hearing or may respond to the charges in writing at any time before the hearing. If the faculty member waives a hearing, but denies the charges or asserts that the charges do not support a finding of adequate cause (in cases of dismissal for cause) or contests the institution's actions to dismiss ~~or not to reappoint~~ him or her (in cases of dismissal ~~or non-reappointment~~ for reasons other than cause), the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee will evaluate all available evidence and rest its recommendation upon the evidence of the record. The faculty member will supply at his or her own expense a copy of his or her complaint and all written evidence to each member of the committee and to each party to the complaint, as well as an additional copy for the University's records.

8. The hearing committee will grant adjournments to enable either party to investigate evidence ~~as to which~~ about which a valid claim of surprise is made.
9. The faculty member will be afforded an opportunity to obtain necessary witnesses and documentary or other evidence. The administration and school or department involved will cooperate with the hearing committee in securing witnesses and making available documentary and other evidence. The faculty member and the ~~administration~~ adversary will have the right to confront and cross-examine all witnesses.

1. Procedures for Cases in Category 1: ~~Tenured~~ Faculty Who Have Received Notification from the Institution that Proceedings Have Been Initiated to Dismiss Them for Cause

In cases involving termination for cause ~~of an appointment with continuous tenure (as well as in cases involving dismissal during the period of temporary appointment)~~, the burden of proof that adequate cause for dismissal exists rests with the institution and will be satisfied only by clear and convincing evidence in the record considered as a whole. Dismissal will not be used to restrain faculty members in their exercise of academic freedom or other rights of American citizens.

In cases involving termination for cause ~~of an appointment with continuous tenure (as well as in cases involving dismissal during the period of temporary appointment)~~, a faculty member who has been notified by the ~~institution~~ Provost that proceedings have been initiated to dismiss him or her for cause should first seek informal redress of grievances according to the ~~following procedures:~~ “Preliminary Procedures” above. Following that process, “Formal Hearing Procedures” may be followed if necessary.

The Formal Hearing Procedures to be followed in category 2 are identical to those listed in category 1. In addition, issues in the formal hearing may include:

- (i) The existence and extent of the condition of financial exigency. The burden will rest on the administration to prove the existence and extent of the condition. The findings of a faculty committee in a previous proceeding involving the same issue may be introduced.

3. Procedures for Cases in Category 3: Faculty ~~Who Are on Probationary Appointments~~ Who Believe Their Nonreappointment Is a Violation of Their Academic Freedom

The burden of proof that ~~dismissal~~ nonreappointment of a faculty member while on probationary or temporary appointment is the result of violation of academic freedom rests with the ~~terminated~~ nonreappointed faculty member. The faculty member making the complaint will request a written statement of reasons for ~~termination~~ nonreappointment from the administration and is responsible for stating the grounds upon which his or her allegations of violation of academic freedom are based. If the faculty member succeeds in establishing a prima facie case, it is incumbent upon those who made the decision against reappointment to come forward with evidence in support of their decision.

Faculty who are ~~terminated~~ not reappointed while on probationary or temporary appointment and who believe their nonreappointment is a violation of academic freedom should first seek informal redress of grievances according to the Preliminary Procedures listed ~~in category 1~~ above with the exception that any faculty member who alleges that a decision against reappointment was based significantly on considerations violative of academic freedom will submit a statement that the faculty member agrees to the presentation, for the consideration of faculty committees, of such reasons and evidence as the institution may allege in support of its decision. The faculty member then has the right to a formal hearing before the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee.

~~The Formal Hearing Proceedings to be followed in category 3 are identical to those listed in category 1.~~

A faculty member may appeal a proposed relocation or termination resulting from a discontinuance. He or she should first seek informal redress of grievances according to the Preliminary Procedures listed ~~in category 1~~ above. He or she then has the right to a formal hearing before the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee.

~~The Formal Hearing Procedures to be followed in category 4 are identical to those listed in category 1.~~

Page 32

If the faculty member believes that he or she has been terminated unfairly for medical reasons, the faculty member should first seek informal redress of grievances in accordance with the Preliminary Procedures listed ~~in category 1~~ above, with the exception that the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee will, instead of conducting a full hearing, ultimately review the evidence (if the faculty member so requests) before a final decision is made by the Board of Trustees on the recommendation of the administration.

Page 33

A faculty member who alleges that a decision against his or her reappointment was based significantly on discriminatory considerations will first seek informal redress of grievances according to the Preliminary Procedures listed ~~in category 4~~ above, with the exception that any faculty member who alleges that he or she was the victim of discrimination in nonreappointment will submit a statement that the faculty member agrees to the presentation, for the consideration of the faculty committees, of such reasons and evidence as the institution may allege in support of its decision. The faculty member then has the right to a formal hearing before the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee.

~~The Formal Hearing Procedures to be followed in category 6 are identical to those listed in category 4.~~

Once the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee has determined that the case is within its jurisdiction, it shall immediately ask the Mediation Committee to inquire informally into the situation in order to attempt to effect a resolution of the matter. If such resolution cannot be achieved, the Mediation Committee will submit a non-binding recommendation to the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee, and the faculty member will have the right to a formal hearing before the Academic Freedom and Tenure Grievance Committee. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the applicable portions of the Formal Hearing Procedures, no. ~~3-2-9 and 11-12,~~ ~~as listed in category 4.~~
