	September 23, 2016 - 7:30pm Martha Reeves & The Vandellas $45 Single tickets will go on sale on July 18, 2016 at 12pm It's hard to believe it that it was nearly 50 years ago that Martha Reeves first hit the charts with the bluesy, soulful "Come and Get These Memories." It is especially hard to believe that much time has passed when Reeves hits the stage. With the unmistakable voice that helped define "the sound of young America," dancing and strutting with an incredible energy, Reeves is a live wire. Martha Reeves and her sisters in song (and in life) Lois and Delphine, continue to heat up clubs, concert stages and music festivals across the globe, thrilling audiences and always leaving them dancing. Their hits are legendary: the Grammy-nominated "Heat Wave," the gospel-tinged "Nowhere to Run," the classic soul favorite "My Baby Loves Me," and the signature, "Dancing In The Street." Crowned "Motown's ultimate soul diva," Martha Reeves established herself as one of music's greatest voices from the beginning. She backed Marvin Gaye on his first three hits ("Stubborn Kinda Fellow," "Pride and Joy," and "Hitch Hike") and gave Holland-Dozier-Holland their first big hit with "Come and Get These Memories." In fact, it was listening to Martha singing "Memories" that Berry Gordy came up with Motown tag line, "the sound of young America." While the roster of Vandellas changed frequently, Reeves' soaring soprano was the constant.

Bobby Colomby, original founder & drummer of BS&T, has fielded a team of the best contemporary musicians to create an All Star powerhouse of a band. His vision for the band remains quite simple, "Find the greatest musicians and the rest is easy". That philosophy was combined with hit recordings of songs by masterful songwriters such as Laura Nyro, James Taylor, The Band, the Rolling Stones, as well as Billie Holiday, that have sold tens of millions of recordings. "I believe BS&T has an iconic stature. It's a style of music," says Colomby. "A concept that people are coming to see, along with songs that they're familiar with." His desire to create a 21st century B,S & T brand first began to come into focus when he heard singer Bo Bice performing "Spinning Wheel" on American Idol. "Bo's an original," says Colomby. When I saw him perform I thought, 'WOW!... He could sing a lot of this material in a newer fresher way.' Bo's style works PERFECTLY with 'God Bless the Child' and 'Spinning Wheel' and 'You Made Me So Very Happy' as well as with the material that the band will be performing as we move musically forward." They have won Gold Records, Grammy Awards, the respect of the best in the industry & the love of millions of fans. 	May 12, 2017 - 7:30pm Rick Springfield "Stripped Down" $67/$52/$25 Single tickets will go on sale on December 13, 2016 at 12pm Over the past three decades, Rick Springfield has worn many hats as an entertainer and performer. The creator of some of the finest power-pop of the '80s, he's a Grammy Award-winning singer, songwriter, and musician who has sold 25 million albums and scored 17 U.S. Top 40 hits, including "Jessie's Girl," "Don't Talk to Strangers," "An Affair of the Heart," "I've Done Everything for You," "Love Somebody," and "Human Touch." He's an accomplished actor who most recently starred opposite Meryl Streep in the feature film Ricki and the Flash and gave a chameleonic performance as the creepy Dr. Pitlor in HBO's prestige drama True Detective. He's also a talented author — both his candid 2010 memoir Late, Late at Night (which Rolling Stone named one of the 25 greatest rock memoirs of all time) and his 2014 comedic novel Magnificent Vibration earned rave reviews and spots on the New York Times Best Sellers' list. In 2013, Springfield wrote and recorded "The Man That Never Was" with Dave Grohl for the soundtrack to Sound City — the Foo Fighters' frontman's documentary about the San Fernando Valley recording studio that was Springfield's home away from home (his manager owned the building). Rolling Stone called Springfield's touching interview in the film its "breakout story." In 2014, Springfield was honored with a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, located around the corner from the first apartment he lived in when he first arrived in the U.S. from Australia in 1971.
