FAQ

WHAT IS UPB?

The University Programming Board serves the student body by providing a variety of quality programs and out-of-the-classroom experiences designed to enhance campus life. The students who make up the board are students who have an investment in contributing to campus community.

HOW CAN STUDENTS JOIN UPB?

Recruitment for members of the board are conducted each Fall semester for the upcoming academic year. Positions remain open for incoming first year students. Applications are available online via Cognito Forms. Please visit the link below for more information on how to apply:
