

IV. From the Faculty Executive Committee:

CHANGE, on page 7 of the current catalog under “PURPOSE-MISSION STATEMENT,” the first few sentences of the second paragraph,

FROM:

Francis Marion University adheres to the primary purpose of its establishment as a college in 1970: to make available excellent undergraduate education in the liberal arts and selected professional programs. The University now offers bachelor's degrees in liberal arts disciplines, business, education, and nursing; master's degrees in business, education, and psychology; and a specialist degree in school psychology.

TO:

Francis Marion University adheres to the primary purpose for which it was established as a college in 1970: to make available excellent educational programs for the people of the region and the state. The University offers bachelor's degrees in a wide range of liberal arts disciplines, as well as in the health sciences, education, and business. The University also offers master's degrees in business, education, nursing, and psychology, as well as a specialist degree in school psychology.

RATIONALE: This is merely a change to reflect the addition of new programs. There are also a few stylistic changes.
