Attachment to the Senate Agenda – October 22, 2013

IV. Academic Affairs

I. Proposal from the Honors Program: (submitted as addenda to those approved at AAC meeting 9.12.2013)

Under GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS on page 74 of the catalog,

A. Change, under Area 4., Humanities/Social Sciences Elective,

FROM:

Anthropology, Art, Economics, Geography, History, Literature (any language), Music, Philosophy and Religious Studies, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, or Theatre

TO:

Anthropology, Art, Economics, Geography, History, Literature (any language), Music, Philosophy and Religious Studies, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Theatre, or Honors 250-279

B. Add, on p. 198, in addition to changes made in AAC 9.12.2013, the following:

270-279 HONORS SPECIAL TOPICS IN THE BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

(3)

Course topics may be interdisciplinary and cover innovative, non-traditional topics within the Behavioral Sciences. May be taken for General Education credit as an Area 4: Humanities/Social Sciences elective. May be applied as elective credit in applicable major with permission of chair or dean.

II. Proposal from the Department of Nursing:

A. ADD, on page 78 under Interdisciplinary Programs, after International Studies, the following:

Interprofessional Healthcare (Course only: no major, minor, or collateral)
Coordinators Dr. Ruth Wittman-Price and Dr. Paul Demarco

Rationale: This course is the first of many courses that may be shared among the growing health professional programs at FMU. This course also affords the interdisciplinary ARCH students access to healthcare screening clinical to assist them in any of the healthcare professions they choose. This course will continue the ARCH tradition by providing hands-on experience in healthcare by establishing two screening clinics and other independent clinical experiences for those students interested in dental or physical therapy programs post-graduation. An application process will continue as was done by the ARCH program.

B. ADD, on page 198, after International Studies, the following:

INTERPROFESSIONAL HEALTHCARE

IPHC 500 Rural Healthcare (3:1-6) (Prerequisite: Junior or senior status with approval of course coordinators or graduate student status. The enrollment in the class is limited to 10 students and will be determined through a competitive application process.) This service-learning course provides the learner interested in rural healthcare the theoretical foundation and skills to engage in healthcare screening clinics for at-risk populations. The course content emphasizes understanding and appreciation of rural healthcare consumers' culture. Healthcare disparities experienced by rural populations will be addressed. There is a six (6) hour practicum to complete every week in order to apply theoretical concepts directly into practice.

III. Proposal from the School of Education:

1. CHANGE on page 174-175 of the current catalog

A. ADD on page 78:

Interprofessional Healthcare (Course only: no major, minor, or collateral)
IPHC 500 Rural Healthcare

RATIONALE:

This course is the first of many courses that may be shared among the growing health professional programs at FMU. This course also affords the interdisciplinary ARCH students access to healthcare screening clinical to assist them in any of the healthcare professions they choose. This course will continue the ARCH tradition by providing hands-on experience in healthcare by establishing two screening clinics and other independent clinical experiences for those students interested in dental or physical therapy programs post graduation. An application process will continue as was done by the ARCH program.

B. ADD on page 197:INTERPROFESSIONAL HEALTHCARE

IPHC 500 Rural Healthcare (3:1-6) (Prerequisite: Junior or senior status with approval of course coordinators or graduate student status. The enrollment in the class is limited to 10 students.) This service-learning course provides the learner interested in rural healthcare the theoretical foundations and skills to engage in healthcare screening clinics for at-risk populations. The course content emphasizes understanding and appreciation of rural healthcare consumers' culture. Healthcare disparities experienced by rural populations will be addressed. There is a six (6) hour practicum to complete every week in order to apply theoretical concepts directly into practice.
