VI. Report from the Graduate Council

1. Proposals from the School of Education

A. DELETE, on page 187 of print catalog / page 197 current online catalog, EDUC 769 Action Research in Special Education

Rationale: The course content and learning objectives for this course are more appropriate in combination with existing methods courses (EDUC 745 and EDUC 763) taken earlier in teacher candidates’ programs of study than as a stand-alone course taken just prior to program completion. The application project from the course will be integrated with practicum co-requisites for methods courses (EDUC 746 and EDUC 764). Course content and learning objectives related to foundational understanding of educational research for this course are adequately addressed through an existing Education Foundation course (EDUC 648), which is already a requirement in the M.Ed.-LD program of study, and will become a requirement in the M.A.T.-LD program of study. This curricular change will provide more of a progression in opportunities for practical application with support throughout the program versus at the end, in order to a) allow better monitoring of teacher candidates’ performance and learning growth over time; b) encourage a clear connection between assessment and instruction in teacher candidates’ practice; and c) align more clearly with Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) Initial Level Special Educator Preparation Standards in efforts to improve teacher preparation for the demands of the field.

B. MODIFY, on page 184 of print catalog / page 194 on current online catalog, under EDUCATION COURSES (EDUC)

FROM

Both EDUC 746 and EDUC 764 require field experience hours in a SC public school setting. To complete the field experience hours, a current SLED background check must be received and approved by the FMU School of Education. Students should check the “News and Announcements” webpage for specific SLED background check deadlines. Please note that EDUC 746 requires a K-6th grade setting and EDUC 764 requires a 7th-12th grade setting.

TO

Practicum Courses (EDUC 639, EDUC 746 and EDUC 764) require field experience hours in a SC public school setting, as specified in corresponding course descriptions. To complete the field experience hours, a current SLED background check must be received and approved by the FMU School of Education. Students should check the “News and Announcements” webpage for specific SLED background check deadlines. Please note that EDUC 746 and 764 require M.Ed. – LD and M.A.T-LD program participants be placed in a classroom that provides instruction to students with specific learning disabilities, but allows participants to choose either a K-6th grade level or 7-12th grade level setting, with each grade level setting used only once for a practicum course (746 or 764). EDUC 639 requires completion of hours in a PK-12 classroom that provides instruction to at-risk learners and/or students with specific learning disabilities in reading.

Rationale: This change more accurately reflects all practicum courses to include EDUC 639 and clarifies both placement requirements and where more specific information is provided.

C. Modify, on page 185 of print catalog / page 195 on current online catalog, under EDUCATION COURSES (EDUC)

From

638 Assessment of Reading (3) (Corequisite EDUC 639). This course is designed to introduce the learner to reading assessment in terms of theories, specific measures and procedures, data interpretation and intervention implications.

To

638 Assessment of Reading (3) (Corequisite for M.Ed.-LD/M.A.T.-LD only - EDUC 639). This course is designed to introduce the learner to reading assessment in terms of theories, specific measures and procedures, data interpretation and intervention implications.

Rationale: This change clarifies that the corequisite is program specific, therefore not a requirement for non-degree seeking students and/or degree seeking students in other programs.

D. Modify, on page 185 of print catalog / page 193-194 on current online catalog, under EDUCATION COURSES (EDUC)

From

639 Practicum: Assessment of Reading (1) (Corequisite EDUC 638). This course is designed to allow learners the practical experience of assessing PK-12 students in reading. Course participants will have the opportunity to demonstrate proficiency in interpreting data and developing interventions. This course requires the completion of a minimum of 15 hours in a South Carolina public school setting. MAT-LD program participants must be placed in a classroom that provides instruction to PK-12 students with learning disabilities. To complete the field experience hours, a current SLED background check must be received and approved by the FMU School of Education. Students should check the “News and Announcements” webpage (www.fmarion.edu/education/soenews/) for specific SLED background check deadlines.

To

639 Practicum: Assessment of Reading (1) (Corequisite for M.Ed.-LD/M.A.T.-LD only - EDUC 638). This course provides practical experience with assessing PK-12 students in reading.

This year, the Faculty Life committee met twice, once in October and once in March.

The fall meeting was used to discuss and recommend speakers for the annual Moran Address (invitations were declined and the address was ultimately not scheduled), as well as to make recommendations to the Faculty Senate for two policy changes to the Faculty Handbook and Constitution (the creation of a newly elected committee to manage the PEAK program and amendments to the faculty policy on family medical leave).

The spring meeting was used to discuss and recommend awardees for the annual faculty awards for excellence in teaching, research, and service. As before, the Committee reviewed approximately 30 applications for the awards and made their unanimous recommendations to the Provost.
