Item 1 – From the School of Business concerns changing the foundation or prerequisite course requirements.

Item 2 – From the School of Education concerns adding a new course: EDUC 555, Teaching Children of Poverty.

IV. Old Business

V. New Business

VI. Announcements

VII. Adjournment

B. Academic Affairs

Item 1 - Proposal from the Honors Program:

A. CHANGE the title of Honors 200 on page 189 in the Catalogue:

FROM:

Honors Science Colloquium Experience TO: Honors Science Symposium

Rationale: In order to graduate 'With University Honors,' students are required to complete HNRS 397, the Honors Colloquium, a graded course, which carries 3 credit hours. Changing the name of HNRS 200 (a non-required S/U course which carries 1 credit hour) from 'Honors Science Colloquium Experience' to 'Honors Science Symposium' will prevent students from confusing these two courses.

C. Graduate Council

Item 2 Proposal from School of Education

ADD on page 200 of the current catalog the following:

EDUC 555, Teaching Children of Poverty, (3) (Prerequisites: Permission of the Graduate School of Education)

This course and its required clinical experiences are designed to provide graduate students with in-depth study of issues related to teaching children of poverty. It includes collaborative research activities and the use of existing research evidence in the areas of the culture of poverty; the classroom community; family and community partnerships; curriculum design, instructional strategies and assessment; relationship-driven classroom management; and teachers as learners, leaders and advocates to improve curriculum, instruction, and assessment in schools serving large numbers of children of poverty. This course is required for all Center of Excellence Scholars.
